The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 14. to Tuesday January 17. 1743.

St. James's, January 16.

THIS Day the following Addreſſes were preſented to the King, which his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE the Provoſt, Dean of Guild, Bailiffs, Treaſurer, and Commons of your Majeſty's ancient City of St. Andrews in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to expreſs our Joy on your Majeſty's ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, after ſo many Dangers to which your Royal Perſon was expoſed in the common Cauſe of Europe: And to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Succeſs of your Endeavours to reſtore the Peace of Europe, ſo often interrupted by the buſy Intrigues, the intereſted and ambitious Deſigns of France, ſo very dangerous to the Freedom and Independency of every State in it.

It is moſt apparent to us, that the Houſe of Auſtria (which in theſe later Ages has, in Conjunction with other Powers, ſo often check'd the Progreſs of the Houſe of Bourbon towards univerſal Empire) would have been utterly ruined, had it not been, through your Majeſty's great Wiſdom, ſupported by its ancient and natural Allies of Great Britain and the States General. The Cauſe is common; our own Freedom and Independency, as well as theirs, depends upon the reciprocal Aid and Aſſiſtance of one another, in all ſuch Times of common Danger; and are only to be ſecured by ſuch a Peace as may reſtore and preſerve a juſt Equilibrium of Power in Europe; ſuch a Balance of Power, as may oblige the Houſe of Bourbon to reſt ſatisfied with the large and extenſive Dominions which it now poſſeſſes, and effectually to reſtrain it from thus wantonly waſting the Blood and Treaſure of its own Subjects, as well as of other Nations, in making Conqueſts and Encroachments upon other States, on every plauſible Occaſion of Succeſs.

We likewiſe beg Leave to lay hold of this Opportunity to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Increaſe of your Royal Family by the Birth of another Prince to his Royal Highneſs; and alſo on the Marriage of your Royal Daughter to the Prince Royal of Denmark, which will prove a further Strength and Security to the Proteſtant Intereſt in Europe.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous; and that there may never be wanting one of your Royal Houſe to ſway the Scepter over us, is the fervent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt loyal and faithful Subjects and Servants.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Baillies, Deacons of Crafts and Remanent Members of the Council of the Burgh of Forfar in Common Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival in Britain, and the Succeſs of the Army in Germany under your Royal Command; the Preſervation of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, is a Bleſſing not to be forgot; as we hope it tends not only to reſtore our decay'd Trade, but ſettling the Tranquility, and reſtoring the Balance of Power in Europe.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Birth of a young Prince; an additional Pledge of our future Happineſs; and of the Princeſs Louiſa's Marriage with the Prince Royal of Denmark, another happy Event for ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe.

Signed in Preſence and at Deſire of the Common Council, By Forfar, Jan. 5, 1744. Alex. Binny, Provoſt.

On the 28th of September arrived his Majeſty's Ship the Adventure from her Cruize off St. Jago, and brought in with her two Sloops, the one an Engliſh Sloop retaken, the other Spaniſh with ſome Cocoa on board, but both Veſſels were deſerted by the Spaniards, who got a-ſhore. Likewiſe the ſame Day the Cumberland Man of War's Tender came in with a Spaniſh Scooner, which ſhe had taken off of Cape Cruſe, of conſiderable Value; as did alſo his Majeſty's Ship the Experiment, which had ſeen Captain Stevens in the Ludlow Caſtle with his Convoy clear of Crooked Iſland. And on the 25th arrived the Sea Horſe from cruiſing in the Windward Paſſage, and brought in with her a Spaniſh Scooner, which ſhe had taken off of Cape

Cumberland, in Port-Royal Harbour, Jamaica, November 8.

This Day arrived here from off of Porto Rico, his Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Litchfield, Capt. Burnaby Commander, with two Privateer Sloops taken in her Cruiſe, the one called the St. Raphael, whoſe Men all left her and went a-ſhore, and ſcuttled her, endeavouring to ſink her: She has Ports for 14 Guns. The other called the St. Antonio de las Animas, with eight Carriage and 14 Swivel Guns, and 42 Men: Beſides which, ſhe ſunk and deſtroyed two more Privateers, the one off the Eaſt End of Hiſpaniola, and the other off the Weſt End of Porto Rico, and burnt another Sloop in Aguada Bay, and deſtroyed a Battery a-ſhore, which ſhe had got under, of four Guns, and landing ſome Men, with an Officer, diſmounted the ſaid Guns, knock'd off the Trunnions, ſpik'd them up, burnt the Carriages and Guard-Houſes, and brought off the Colours in the Preſence of a Multitude of Spaniards, of whom they are ſuppos'd to have killed near 200, and with the Loſs of but one Man.

Petersbourg, Dec. 17. The Czarina has put off her Journey to Moſcow till the latter End of February or the Beginning of March, on account of the Great Duke's Indiſpoſition, and her Majeſty has declared her Intention of ſtaying a Year at Moſcow when ſhe goes next to that Place.

Florence, Jan. 7, N. S. On the 1ſt Inſtant a Battalion arrived here from Leghorn, conſiſting of about 950 Men, lately raiſed in Tuſcany, moſtly of German Deſerters; and on the 3d, eſcorted by Detachments of the Lorrain Regiment, Foot Guards and Cuiraſſiers Militia, was ſet in March without Arms to Bologne, to be received on the Confines by others from Prince Lobcowitz, and by them to be conducted to join the Auſtrian Army, in Conſequence of an Agreement between the Queen of Hungary and the Great Duke, reciprocally to reſtore the Deſerters of each State. As theſe Soldiers were going out of the Gates of Florence, ſome Diſorder aroſe on their declining to march to the ſaid Army, but M. de Braitwitz went to them at ſome Diſtance out of the Town, and induced them to proceed on their March. The ſame Day a Battalion of the Lorrain Regiment Foot Guards from Leghorn arrived at Florence, to join their Regiment. The ſame Day, the 1ſt, an equal Number of Troops out of Meſſ. Capponi and Pandolfini's Regiments Militia, from Prato, Piſtoia, Peſcia, &c. were ordered to Leghorn to replace thoſe marched to join Prince Lobcowitz. On the 3d the Regiment of Militia Cuiraſſiers was alſo ordered to march to Leghorn. Diſpoſitions are making all over Tuſcany to compleat the old Militia, and for raiſing new Corps. We do not hear any freſh Particulars with regard to the Armies in the Romagna; both of them remain in their former Situations. On the 26th paſt the Duke of Modena, attended by Marqueſs Gherardini, Count Tabatini, and ſome few of his Domeſticks, ſet out from Fano for Venice, having left the Spaniſh Army on account of the Diſagreements between him, M. de Gages, and the Spaniſh Generals. This Day, the 7th of January, being the Day fixed for the Nuptials at Vienna of Prince Charles of Lorrain and the Archdutcheſs Marianne, the Members of the Regency received the Compliments of the foreign Miniſters, Nobility, and military Officers in their rich Habits; on which Occaſion a Quantity of Bread and Wine was, by Order of the Government, diſtributed to the Poor; and in the Evening there are to be artificial Fireworks at the old Palace. The Cannon of the Caſtles is to be fired, and a great Illumination to be made in the Theatre.

Berlin, Jan. 14. Prince William of Heſſe left this Place on the 11th Inſtant, and his Pruſſian Majeſty goes to Potſdam in a few Days; after which he returns here again, and is not to ſet out for Sileſia till the Month of March, towards the Time of the Fair of Breſlaw.

Burriſh has alſo preſented new Credentials to the Chapter on the Part of his Britannick Majeſty, and was complimented the next Day in the Name of the Chapter by their Ecolatre, or Orator, M. Clerx. Yeſterday Count Virmundt, Grand Judge of Wetzlar, arrived here in Quality of Imperial Commiſſary to preſide at the enſuing Election.
